NORTHSIDE SHOEMAN VISITED BY AMAZONIAN

Modern Man Killer Gets Peeved at Joe Brady; Uses Umbrella On Him.

Joe Brady, expert shoemaker, at 519 N. Main st., was busily plying on a pair of ladies slippers, when a tall, stout female walked into his shop, Monday afternoon. This is what happened.

The lady—"Say friend, know any Swede's around here?"

Joe—"No, what can I do you for?"

The lady—"Well, yuh see its like this—I'm busted and wantin' some kule, hungry, get me?"

Joe—"Oh that's it? Well go to the restaurant near here, and I'll settle for it."

The woman—"No, I'm wantin' dough. If I get a hold of some of my Swedish friends—they'll fix me up. Can't yuh give me a little cash?"

Joe—"No-nothing doin'—I'll pay for your eats, but no money."

The female—"Yuh cheap skate—Tell me as how I can find my Swedish pals, will ya?"

Joe—"Why don't you try the post office?"

The woman—"Oh—you will kid me, eh? I'll show yuh."

And with that she set upon her victim with an umbrella and almost mutilated his head and shoulders. Joe up and beat it.

A while later, after the Amazonian had departed, and Joe thought the coast was clear he started to ply on those lady slippers again, but the intruder was not satisfied and once more gave Joe a hauling over. This time Joe succeeded in riding his shop of the woman.

EAST END REALTY IS IN CONSTANT DEMAND

Lincoln Garden Realty Co. Preparing For Lively Campaign.

The predicted awakening of the east end, and the movement in realty in that part of the city which has been anticipated for sometime, has arrived according to several leading citizens interested in that part of the city. Several new residences are in course of construction at the present time, and many lots in the different additions are changing hands daily. The advent of the Gillette Motors Co., and the prospect of the concern eventually employing several hundred men, has given a decided impetus to the east end. The Lincoln Garden Realty Co., which owns the Gernhart property, consisting approximately of 80 acres, which is bounded by the Country club on the east, St. Joseph river on the north, the new city park on the west and Lincoln highway on the south, is being developed, and within the next few weeks will be put on the market. This property is in the center of a section which is being rapidly built up, and has every advantage of a residence section of the finest type. Former Sec'y Weigel of the Chamber of Commerce, South Bend, will look after the company's interests, once it gets down to business in Mishawaka. It is understood that at least 15 new residences will be erected as soon as the selling campaign is started. The shareholders of the company number some of Mishawaka's best known business men, and include Hon. M. W. Mix, Adolph Kamm, Dr. T. C. Stowell, Julius Bennett, Aloys Schindler, John W. Schindler, Horace G. Eggleston and John A. Herzog. The officers of the company are Joseph A. Werwinski, president; H. G. Eggleston, vice president; John A. Herzog, treasurer, and John W. Schindler, secretary, while the directors are M. W. Mix, Adolph Kamm, Dr. T. C. Stowell, Julius Bennett, James J. Becker, J. W. Schindler, H. G. Eggleston, J. A. Herzog and J. A. Werwinski.

MANY NEW HOMES ERECTED THIS YEAR

Sixty-three of the 105 buildings permits issued for the first half of the year were for new residences. This is said to be the largest number of homes built in the first six months of a year for some time. The remainder of the permits were for remodeling and store buildings. The total amount expended totalled $234,356. In 1914, the report for the first six months showed 79 permits issued, which totalled $189,195. For the same months in the following year 146 permits were granted, totalling $294,450.

CEMETERY QUESTION IS AGAIN POSTPONED

Public Improvements Committee Shelves Question Until Thursday Night.

The cemetery proposition has been shelved until Thursday night next, when it will again be discussed by the public improvements committee at another meeting. Monday night, this body met at the city hall and again listened to the arguments on behalf of the two propositions already submitted for their approval. These are the Borley and Stoeckinger additions. Representatives of both these plots were present at the meeting and were given a hearing. Many points were again discussed as to the merits of each of these properties, and suggestions were made by the committee as to prices of lots, etc. It had been rumored around the city that definite action would be taken by this committee at the Monday night session, but the matter would appear to many to be as far from definite settlement as it was five years ago. In the meantime Mishawaka is practically without a burying ground, and those who are bereaved through death and do not now own a lot in the city cemetery will have to look elsewhere for a place wherein to lay away their dead.

RAILROADS WILL NOT BUDGE FROM POSITION CAUSING STRIKE VOTE

International News Service: CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The railroads will not budge one inch from the position they have taken with their employees and which has resulted in the strike vote, according to Harry A. Wheeler, chairman of a special committee of the National Chamber of Commerce. The committee was named to try for a peaceful solution of the eight hour day and overtime dispute between four brotherhoods, involving more than 350,000 men, and the railroads. Wheeler has just returned from New York after a conference with railroad officials.

"Even if the Newlands act is invoked, it will make no difference, he said. "Under that the disputants must agree as to the questions to be arbitrated, and the companies will not do this. After a conference Aug. 8, the men will be confronted with the direct issue of a strike."

PLANS COLLEGES FOR WEARY WILLIES

Cambridge, Mass., July 31.—"Many a hobo could teach Pres't Lowell, of Harvard, more real economics than he will ever learn within these classic shades," said James Eads How, of St. Louis, the "millionaire hobo" after visiting his alma mater.

How is enthusiastic over the establishment of a chain of colleges for hobos. Economics would be one of the principal courses taught, he says.

Ex-Greek Premier Flouts King

King Constantine

Ex-Greek Premier Venizelos

ATHENS, Aug. 1.—Former Premier Venizelos, openly challenges King Constantine's expressed belief that Germany cannot be defeated. Venizelos quotes an interview given by the king to a newspaper representative last January, in which the monarch declared that the war would result in a draw.

"Who is now so blinded by prejudice," asks the statesman, "that he still believes in German victory? Who today, after the reorganization of the Russian army and the organization of Kitchener's army, by which England is raised to the rank of a great military power, still imagines that the war can be ended by a bastard peace in which there will be neither victory nor vanquished?"

In the interview referred to by former Premier Venizelos, King Constantine said:

"If economic exhaustion does not force Germany to sue for peace, I believe it will be very difficult, if not impossible, to conquer her in a military way."

Asked as to what he believed would be the outcome of the war, the king replied: "A draw; don't you?"

MAN WHO CONVERTED BILLY SUNDAY IS DEAD

International News Service: CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Harry Monroe, the "lighthouse of the Pacific Garden Mission," is dead. He was the man who converted Billy Sunday and started him on his career of evangelism. His death was due to an injury received in a street car accident last winter. He was born in Exeter, N. H., January 17, 1853, and after a rough life as a youth, was converted 35 years ago and has since devoted his life to religious work.

By the Underwood law this administration has taken the tariff out of politics by the new tariff commission it proposes to take politics out of the tariff.

Speaking at a banquet of the Republican club in New York last January, by virtue of his life-long allegiance to the republican party, Mr. Schiff declared:

"I want to explain that nothing can stop the great prosperity we now have except a renewal of tariff agitation in the next campaign. Standing here on holy republican ground I say without fear or favor if you new in the next presidential campaign the tariff agitation of the past, if you threaten the country and show it you want a renewal of special privilege and high protection, the people will have none of it. The people have learned; the workmen and the farmers have learned and they can not be misled any longer. I do not say that because I love the republican party less, but because I love it more. My heart is for the republican party, but my common sense makes me a democrat."

And in these words Mr. Schiff voices the opinions of men with whom special interest in secondary to the welfare of all.
